

Loaves and Fishes

Loaves and Fishes provides emergency food for people in Grant County who are in need. Loaves and Fishes is not meant to be a grocery store but is here to help people over a rough spot.

In 2012, Loaves and Fishes served 217 families – 1,088 people

People are referred to Loaves and Fishes by several agencies including many pastors and the police department.

Loaves and Fishes purchases staples from local grocery stores and also gives vouchers for items that are hard to keep on hand.